- There is no resourcing available for 2SD children. All resources are/have been directed to struggling students with no consideration provided for students who are gifted and have been overlooked for special programming. The SDP is vague, does not show any concrete, actionable items which could be considered a worthwhile strategy. Delivery of services is undefined, and there are no details on how any of our teachers or administrations plans to deliver on the goals outlined.
- I can'tproperly answer the previous question as I am not in a position to understand the needs of all students
- Supports student learning and teacher practice well.

Schools must operate within their budget and too many fees can be unmanageable for families. Knowing that, please rank the following activities and services in order of importance to you.

Please share any other thoughts you may have about our school budget and fees.

- Each month, there are extra fees required for every activity, School lunch supervision... we pay the same amount per month regardless of whether half the month is spent at home (i.e. December). School fees are out of control, and although we have no issue paying them, we recognize many families do not have these options. Also, the "artist in residence" is not a good use of funds.

- The students have lots of great experiences through the school. Teacher's Pet is too expensive for what it offers, and when teachers can do the same thing, but other fees that we're charged are worth it. Thank you.
- School fees for Artists, Field Trips and other enrichment programs add up quickly. With two students at the school, these fees, with lunch supervision, are getting expensive. I feel like I have no choice but to pay these fees and that there are assumptions made by teachers and administrators or school council that parents can afford these and there is not a lot of conversation or consideration of the overall, cumulative cost. I appreciate my children have the opportunity to do these things, but perhaps one or two a year, not multiple. I.e. Teacher's Pet, Clay for Kids, Youth Singers, Multiple Field trips, etc. They don't need all of these. It feels like there is an assumption that parents in our community can, or want to, pay for these multiple expenses.
